Elzina's Farmers Market

The new LG farmers market needs produce vendors. The annual vendor/membership fee is waived if interested parties will commit to the grand opening and 2 other market months (3 total between June and October).

The Market will have lots of vendors with eggs, baked goods, and jams. We need people with produce, vegetables, fruits, etc. Contact Market Director Stephanie Wise for details and information at LocustGroveFarmersMarket@gmail.com.

Blood Drive at LG Plaza

There will be a Blood Drive Sat. June 11, from 9:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. at the LG Plaza at the downtown stoplight.

Donators get a free T-shirt and 2 tickets to an adventure park of your choice. Recent shootings/events mean the Blood Bank is in desperate need of donated blood and plasma.

Consider donating to this important cause. Several spots are available to sign up and donate. Call 615-585-4456 to set up a time or use this link:

Where is Peggy?

The podcast we do at the Rural Oklahoma Museum of Poetry called Wacky Poem Life had a recent episode about a missing pig. She's not any ordinary pig, and we still need help finding her.

Not long after ROMP opened in 2012, we came into possession of a 2-foot tall wooden pig. We painted her and named her Peggy the Personification Pig and put instructions on her bottom for people to take her out into the world and personify her.

For two years, people did just that. Peggy had a blog and lots of photos of her in various adventures, at a rock quarry, in classrooms, playing cards with families, etc. Then, she disappeared.

One day someone took her from the museum, probably with all good intentions to personify her in various places and bring her back. But they never did.

Watch the video and listen to the podcast, Episode 31, at WackyPoemLife.com and see if you can help us bring Peggy home. The porker needs to be back at ROMP!

Remember the Mickey Mantle/Baseball Poetry exhibit at ROMP continues all this month.
