Community Garden

Locust Grove will soon have a Community Garden managed by the local FFA. The program has a grant for 4 raised beds and a water system. If you are interested in helping to build the garden and to be involved, please contact through Community Garden Locust Grove on Facebook.

LG Boy Scout Trip

Recently, LG Boy Scout Troop 94 and Pack 94 took a trip to the Alamo in San Antonio, the USS Lexington in Corpus Christi and the Space Center Houston.

Carmen Cobler is the troop leader, and Steve Cole is the scout leader. The scouts meet every other Monday at 7:00 p.m. at the Free Will Baptist Church. Call Carmen at 527-4506 for more information.

New Exhibit coming in August

Wonder City Coffee Drive-Thru

The new drive-thru hours are 6-6, Mon-Fri and 10-8, Sat.-Sun, until further notice.

This month's specials include yogurt parfaits, salads and a variety of frozen drinks.

First Baptist Church VBS

The First Baptist Church will have its annual Vacation Bible School July 25-29, 6-8:30 p.m.

The school will help students experience the jaw-dropping beauty of the Great Barrier Reef, the arid temperature of outback afternoons, the architectural marvels of Australia's modern cities and the fascinating eucalyptus forest, home of the koalas.

Zoomerang VBS is designed to help children explore the wonder and value of life.

VBS is for kids ages 3 years to 6th grade. A free dinner is served at 5:30 p.m. before each class.

Elzina's Farmers Market

This month's market opening bell will be rung by Chief Bean on July 9. There will be produce, live plants and more vendors for the 2nd market of the season from 9:00-noon.

Elzina's is now partnered with the Crafty Traveler to offer a handmade local market at the VFW Hall for non-edible, non-produce items. (cont. over)

Also, some food trucks will be parked by the Grand Theater Courtyard. The Market is also looking for entertainers who want to showcase their talent.

The Market is the 2nd Saturday of every month.

Email LocustGroveFarmersMarket@gmail.com or send a message through Elzina's Farmers Market Facebook page to get involved.

Free Popsicles July 16

Your Place Church is partnering with Main Street LG to bring free popsicles to the community on July 16 from 9:00 to noon at the gazebo in the LG Plaza downtown.

Stretching & Self Defense

The Stretching & Self Defense class for adults of any age is continuing through July, every Monday and Wednesday at 9:00 a.m. at the Grand Theater Courtyard downtown.

Paul Flaherty is teaching the class and giving wonderful instruction on breathing and stretching exercises and basic self-defense moves. Feel free to attend at any time. More information is at ROMPoetry.com.

Let's Talk about It Book Club

The Rural Oklahoma Museum of Poetry is pleased to host its 3rd Let's Talk About It book club for Fall 2022. From August to December 2022, the club will discuss books on the theme of Crime & Comedy: The Lighter Side of Murder and Misdemeanor.

Literary experts open each book discussion with a fresh analysis of the text, cultivating intrigue and curiosity. By revealing information about the author's life, giving historical context, and shedding light on recurring themes throughout the book, they impart a deeper understanding of the readings and lay the groundwork for an illuminating exchange of ideas within the group.

Aug. 18:

The Code of the Woosters by PG Wodehouse

Sept. 29:

The Burglar Who Traded Ted Williams by Lawrence Block

Oct. 27:

Native Tongue by Carl Hiaasen

Nov. 17:

Cozy: A Stanley Hastings Mystery by Parnell Hall

Dec. 15:

One for the Money by Janet Evanovich

Come to one session, a few or all. Reading copies of the books are limited, so reserve yours today by coming by the museum during open hours or making arrangements to pick up a book at ROMP Rummage, 112 E. Main, on days the museum is not open.
