LG Library Summer Reading

The local library had 61 kids signed up for the summer reading program, which ran from June 14 - July 26. Every week the kids had a different activity to come in and do at their leisure. Every time they came in and participated, they received a custom made button for the week.

Librarian Marea Breedlove noted, "We had great attendance and participation."

The total books read, calculated from the 25 reading logs turned in was over 700. The top readers were Brett Hollis (age 13-up) with 10 books, Emmalynn Ragsdale (age 10-12) 49 books, Mazie Hollis (age 7-9) 55 books and Lily Hall (age 5-6) 60 books.

Top readers received prizes, and there was a drawing for a prize, also. The end of the summer party had a great turnout and included a performer from Finer Arts Oklahoma.

ROMP Hosts Local Author Fair

ROMP is hosting a local author fair on Sept. 10, Sat., from 11-3, in the museum parking lot. Local authors can sign up for a table at ROMPoetry.com or call 479-7667. Free food truck, silent auction and more will take place that day.

Wonder City Coffee News

Wonder City Coffee is having a Sunshine Special: When you purchase a drink from 6-7 a.m., you get a free breakfast item. The drive thru hours are 6am to 6pm weekdays and 10am to 8pm weekends.

Happy Hour is 3-5 pm at the drive-thru or walk-up window, and you buy a drink and get one free.

The August Drink Specials are a treasure trove of Pirates goodness. These include the Ching Shih, a jade cloud iced tea with rose syrup.

Blackbart's Royal Fortune comes with a free granola bar to nibble as you sip your white mocha almond frappe.

Blackbeard is a charcoal lemonade. Calico Jack, is blackberry and peach twisted ice, and Why's the Rum Gone is a spiced rum flavor and coconut cold brew.

Lastly, Black Pearl is a mocha and strawberry iced latte with strawberry popping pearls and Pirate Pride is a vanilla coconut frappe.

15 Tip: New ROMP Exhibit

15 TiP: 15 Themes in Poetry is a new exhibit at the Rural Oklahoma Museum of Poetry. This exhibit highlights the ideas that are instrumental in shaping poetry and in also shaping our lives.

The emphasis in this unique display and the activities is how these themes, such as aging, love, war, nature, beauty, are felt and evoked through the physical body.

The museum is open Thu.-Sat. from 10-5, and by appointment at other times and days. The exhibit is suitable for all ages and includes a lot of ways for people to interact with art, words and creativity.

Pa Tuan Tsin & Poetry Class Starting up Sept. 5

In June 2022, Master Paul Flaherty started teaching a free class, sponsored by ROMP, with instruction in stretching, breathing, punches, stances and kicks and the Chon-Ji form.

If you are interested in learning more about the new class before it begins in Sept, stop by the museum and pick up an August workbook created for the class members to help them when the class is not in session.

The class is open to any adult, free of charge. It will meet at 9 a.m. Sept. 5-Oct. 27, on Mondays at the Grand Theater Courtyard and on Thursdays at Pipe Springs Park.

Let's Talk About It Book Club at ROMP

The book club at ROMP starts up again Aug. 18. Come by and check out a book now and enjoy this fun, informative club. More details are under PROGRAMS at the museum website.
