15 Tip: New ROMP Exhibit

15 TiP: 15 Themes in Poetry is a new exhibit at the Rural Oklahoma Museum of Poetry. This exhibit highlights the ideas that are instrumental in shaping poetry and in also shaping our lives.

The emphasis in this unique display and the activities is how these themes, such as aging, love, war, nature, beauty, are felt and evoked through the physical body.

The museum is open Thu.-Sat. from 10-5, and by appointment at other times and days. The exhibit is suitable for all ages and includes a lot of ways for people to interact with art, words and creativity.

Community by the Plate Needs

For the next Community by the Plate on Aug. 28, starting at 11:30 a.m., Wonder City Coffee is looking for a fish fryer to borrow. They are also looking for people to donate their summer catch for the community fish fry meal.

If you have fish to donate, bring them by WCC before 2 pm, Aug. 27.

Pa Tuan Tsin & Poetry Class Starting up Sept. 5

In June 2022, Master Paul Flaherty started teaching a free class, sponsored by ROMP, with instruction in stretching, breathing, punches, stances and kicks and the Chon-Ji form.

If you are interested in learning more about the new class before it begins in Sept, stop by the museum and pick up an August workbook created for the class members to help them when the class is not in session.

The class is open to any adult, free of charge. It will meet at 9 a.m. Sept. 5-Oct. 27, on Mondays at the Grand Theater Courtyard and on Thursdays at Pipe Springs Park.
