Shiver Me Timbers hosts The Outsiders movie

On Sept. 3, at 7:45 p.m. Shiver Me Timbers at the west end of Main, will have a Movie Night showing "The Outsiders." The movie, filmed in Tulsa, is based on the popular S.E. Hinton novel.

A special guest at the event will be Danny O'Connor, who owns The Outsiders House Museum in Tulsa. He will talk about some of his efforts to save the film's history.

Bring your lawn chairs or blankets or both. Ice chests are welcome. This is a free event, and people are encouraged to come sit on the grass and enjoy the evening.

LG's HG Meat Company will be grilling up free burgers while supplies last.

Dental Arts of LG

The new dentist Dr. Naylor at Dental Arts of OK is booking new appointments from 8:00-5:00. When you schedule your first visit, you will have 0 out of pocket expenses on new patient cleaning.

The dental office, located at 402 E. Main, can be reached at 888-5055.

LGAA Meeting Aug. 31

The Locust Grove Arts Alliance, which has been mostly on hiatus since the pandemic, is having a meeting on Wed. Aug. 31, at 5:00 p.m. to discuss future plans.

President Kelly Palmer has some ideas and hopes other people will come with their own. New and returning members are welcome. If you are interested in the arts in our local community, please attend at 114 E. Main.

ROMP Hosts Local Author Fair

ROMP is hosting a local author fair on Sept. 10, Sat., from 11-3, in the museum parking lot. Local authors can sign up for a table at ROMPoetry.com or call 479-7667. Free food truck, silent auction and more will take place that day.

Handmade Earrings at Madelyn's

Madelyn's Flowers & Gifts has some lovely earrings made by Lyndsey Keener for sale. Get some for yourself or as a gift.

The shop, at 120 E. Main, is open Mon.-Fri., 9:00-5:00.

LGHS Art Teacher Needs Supplies

LGHS art teacher Liz Boney has a project page on the Donors Choose website to try and raise funds for her classroom needs.

She says, "Another year, we are poorly funded for Art. The state of Oklahoma is trying to cut education even further, by removing federal funding. My colleagues and I in Art are slowly dwindling. Without your donations and help, we cannot continue to have classes that our students deserve and desire."

"My students are from rural Oklahoma with a high rate of Native American and underprivileged youth. Donations through DonorsChoose allow us to continue our efforts to explore art and ourselves."

Boney teaches art in grades 9-12 and has approximately 130 students. To donate, go to DonorsChoose.org and search for Ms Boney's Classroom.

Wonder City Coffee Special

Wonder City Coffee is having a Sunshine Special: When you purchase a drink from 6-7 a.m., you get a free breakfast item. The drive thru hours are 6-6 weekdays and 10-8 weekends.

We print any LG news you can give us. Deadline is noon Sat. of each week. Email, call or come by the museum at 416 E. Main with your information.—Shaun Perkins

A Podcast Gift

Wacky Poem Life is a podcast of the Rural Oklahoma Museum of Poetry. Co-hosts Shaun Perkins and Bill Guthrie recently attended Podcast Movement in Dallas, the largest podcast convention in the world, and gained more listeners and opportunities for growth.

One of the things they did at the conference was leave cards around for people to find that instructed them to text Shaun 3 words and their name and then she wrote a poem for them and texted it back.

She wrote a lot of poems, but it was sure a lot of fun. You can do the same. Text 918-864-9152 three words and your first name or send them to wackypoemlife@gmail.com and get your poetic gift in return.

If you don't like poetry, no problem. WPL is entertaining anyway! Give it a chance. It is a unique podcast—and it's local! Recorded each week at the museum on Main Street, LG. You can listen straight from the website or any place where you listen to podcasts. WackyPoemLife.com.

Food Pantry Blue & Gold Orders

The LG Ministerial Alliance Food Pantry has received an offer from a donor to match up to $500 in donated Blue and Gold items sold through Locust Grove High School FFA.

To qualify for the matching funds, Blue and Gold orders must be placed at the food pantry. An order sheet will be available. You can also donate money towards a Blue and Gold order.

The orders and money must be received by September 1st so it can be turned in to the Locust Grove FFA department. You may drop by the food pantry or call Jo Coverdell at 918-577-5850 for more details.

The pantry is open Tue. and Thu. 9:30-11:30 and Wed. 3:30-5:30.

15 Tip: New ROMP Exhibit

15 TiP: 15 Themes in Poetry is a new exhibit at the Rural Oklahoma Museum of Poetry. This exhibit highlights the ideas that are instrumental in shaping poetry and in also shaping our lives.

The emphasis in this unique display and the activities is how these themes, such as aging, love, war, nature, beauty, are felt and evoked through the physical body.

The museum is open Thu.-Sat. from 10-5, and by appointment at other times and days. The exhibit is suitable for all ages and includes a lot of ways for people to interact with art, words and creativity.

Martial Arts & Poetry Class Starting up Sept. 5

Master Paul Flaherty will be teaching a free class, sponsored by ROMP, with instruction in stretching, breathing, punches, stances and kicks and the Chon-Ji form. No experience necessary!

The class is open to any adult, free of charge. It will meet Sept. 5-Oct. 27 twice a week: at 9 a.m. on Mondays at the Grand Theater Courtyard and on Thursdays at Pipe Springs Park.
